About the Compiler 320

About The Throwback Series 320

Typography note: The compiler's commentary and annotations throughout The Juggler's Anthology of Venerable Veracities are typeset in "Swiss 721" from the Bitstream Corp., a 1982 variant of Helvetica, the functional, versatile, and ubiquitous typeface designed by Max Meidinger (1910-1980) in 1957. This modern sans serif typeface was chosen so that the commentary is easily distinguishable from the body text of the books, excerpts, articles, and interviews reproduced in this volume.
